Three Killed; 19 Injured In Crash Of Plane

Air Force C-47 Crashes Into Empty Barracks At Chanute Field, Ill.

MOST PASSENGERS RESERVE OFFICERS

CHANUTE FIELD, Ill., Oct. 25.—(INS)—Chanute field officials said today that three persons were killed and 19 injured in the crash of an air force C-47 at the base. Identification of the dead and five persons seriously injured was withheld pending notification of next of kin.

The public relations office said the transport was en route from Los Angeles to Wright Field, Dayton, O., when it crashed into the empty barracks last night.

Authorities reported that most of the plane's passengers apparently were reserve officers who were flying to the Ohio base for two weeks active duty training.

They said the ship also apparently carried several aerial hitchhikers.

The plane had re-fueled at Albuquerque, N. M., and took off for Scott Field, Ill., where it was to refuel before continuing on to Wright Field.

Bad weather

The field's public relations officer said that the plane ripped out power and communication lines and made an immediate count of the dead and injured impossible. The transport sheared off the roof of one of the buildings and demolished the second. There was no fire.

Officials said the ship's gas tank were empty when it underlashed the runway and ripped into the barracks.

The C-47 ran into bad weather over St. Louis and headed to Chanute Field, about 130 miles northeast of the Missouri city.

The ship was based at Wright Field, Dayton, O.

Pa Newc Observes

Work is under way on a $10,000 heating contract at the Central Presbyterian church on the Public Square. A new steam heating system is being installed for the entire building replacing the hot air heating system used for many years past.

Pa. News noted one auto driver on the roads Sunday who was taking no chances on a sudden drop in temperature. The water front was already in place on the car.

When the work on the intersection of the Perry highway and Route 432 at Dixie Inn locality is completed, there will be a much changed picture of that area. Route 432 will go under the Perry highway, and wide new approaches to make safe entry onto the routes are being constructed.

As a safety measure a high iron fence has been erected around the front of the Highland public school yard on Highland avenue.

With the accumulation of leaves in front of city residences, housewives again should take care not to burn the leaves on the asphalt pavement. The heat would damage the street. If the leaves are to be burned, they should be placed on earth surfaces for this purpose and then away from frame buildings.

Persons who drive autos on highways of the city and county should be extra careful about burning lighted cigarettes out of the car. With the great accumulations of dry leaves on streets and on property.

Believe Soviet Delays Showdown On Berlin Until After Election

By JOHN A. BRISCHMANN
(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Diplomatic quarters in Washington today believe that Russia may be delaying a full showdown with the western powers over the German question until after the elections.

Some reports from the western zones have predicted that Moscow plans some move of a dramatic nature to force the western powers out of blockaded Berlin once the elections are over.

These speculations have been based primarily on the generally accepted indication that the Russians would take advantage of the difficulties of transition from one administration to another, believing the United States would be powerless to meet any challenge.

Form of Action Uncertain

Just what form of action might be anticipated was not predicted. The most obvious appeared to be the adoption of forceful measures to halt the Berlin airlift, which has been continuing since June.

French Troops Seize Mines In Northern France

By JOHN E. LEE
(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Oct. 25.—French troops and police seized coal mines throughout northern France today with little opposition from Communist-led strikers.

Deliver Miners From Terror

Minister of the Interior Jules Moch said in a broadcast that the seizures were carried out "to deliver the miners from terror instigated by a minority of agitators serving a cause not that of France."

He warned that the government still has at its disposal a "great quantity of reserve troops and police."

A ministry of interior spokesman said that the "vast operation" for "occupation of the mines" is proceeding "normally."

The seizures came as reports told of a split in the solid front of Communist miners.

Cafe photographers immediately flocked around them, and the prince not only identified himself, but obligingly wrote out his name on a slip of paper.

The prince is the son of Aga Khan, the fabulously wealthy head of the Moslem faith.

Hines Assails Congressmen

Appeals For Defeat Of Taft-Hartley Act

SPEAKS AT A.P.L.
DINNER MEETING

Congressmen, both Republican and Democratic, who voted for the Taft-Hartley Act, came in for a verbal drubbing Saturday night in the Cathedral.

Lewis G. Hines, former secretary of labor and industry in the cabinet of Governor Arthur H. James was the principal speaker at the annual dinner-dance of the New Castle Trades and Labor Assembly. He castigated the Republican party and its candidates but reserved his heaviest artillery for Congressman Louis E. Graham who represents this district.

"In Revolt"

"I am a Republican," said Mr. Hines, now the legislative director for the American Federation of Labor in Washington, "but I am in open revolt against the Republican leadership. We hear that Harry S. Truman is a nice little fellow but not big enough for the job. Well, the little fellow suits this Philadelphia Republican."

"Two years ago," said Mr. Hines, "about one third of the voters went to the polls and we got the 80th Congress. They weren't even decent enough to wait for a Republican president, they went to work on labor right away."

Specifically singling out the Taft-Hartley Act, Mr. Hines said, "show me one line in the entire act that makes for good labor relations."

City Faces Cut Of 65 To 70 Per Cent In Bakery Goods Today As Result

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—(INS)—The Chicago area faced 65 to 70 per cent cut in bakery goods today.

A strike of 1,500 members of Local 100 of the AFL-Bakery and Confectionary Workers shut down ten major bakeries in Chicago, suburban River Forest and Gary and Hammond, Ind.

Federal mediators moved into the dispute in an effort to settle the walkout which was called at midnight Saturday to enforce wage demands.

All-day conferences between bakery officials and union leaders failed to bring a settlement yesterday despite the intervention of Mayor Martin H. Kennelly.

The strikers seek a 15 per cent pay boost which would mean a raise of from 13 to 16 cents per hour. The baker companies have offered a nine-cent wage hike.

A spokesman for the union said it would see bread was supplied to hospitals.

Small Powers Compromise On Berlin Is Vetoed

Action Kills Off Proposed Settlement To Lift Berlin Blockade

RUSSIA PROPOSES "TOKEN" LIFTING

(BULLETIN)

PARIS, Oct. 25.—Soviet Russia vetoed today a small power compromise resolution aimed at ending the Berlin blockade crisis in the U. N. Security Council.

This 25th use of veto power by Russia since the United Nations was established killed off a settlement which would have lifted the blockade immediately.

The Soviet veto was cast by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky. Dmitri Mamulsky of the Ukraine followed suit.

Paris, Oct. 25.—(INS)—

Soviet Russia announced today that it will veto against a compromise resolution placed before the U. N. Security Council for settlement of the Berlin crisis.

Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky, stressed that Russia would exercise its veto power for the 25th time since the U. N. was inaugurated.

His announcement came after the western powers rejected a Soviet offer to stage a "token" lifting of the Berlin blockade.

By PIERRE J. HUBB

(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Oct. 25.—Soviet Russia offered the western powers a "token" lifting of the Berlin blockade today in return for a concession on currency negotiations.

The offer, made by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vishinsky, was accompanied by a blunt hint that its acceptance is the only alternative to a Soviet veto of the small nations' compromise plan drafted by U. N. Security Council Chairman Juan A. Bramuglia.

There was a wide divergence of opinion as to the possibility of success arising from the Soviet plan. U. S. Delegate Dr. Philip C. Jessup was asked flatly whether he thought there was a chance of reaching agreement. He said: "Yes, I think so."

Vishinsky stated an intensive campaign to put across his proposal. Bramuglia agreed to present it to the western powers with some changes of his own, thus transforming it into a new formula.

It was understood that under the proposal the great air-lifts into Berlin would be suspended, pending agreement with western Germany. The airlifts would be resumed partially at once.

Trains would not resume operations, however, until a currency agreement was reached. The airlifts therefore would continue to be necessary, although their business would be lightened by assumption of some road traffic.

"Extremely Complicated"

Arab Forces Falling Back

U. N. Truce Commission Indicates That Fighting Is Quieting Down

By BENN FELLER
(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

TEL AVIV, Oct. 25.—(INS)—Arab forces fell back along the northern Palestine front today in the face of stiffened Israeli resistance.

A United Nations truce commission spokesman in Haifa indicated that fighting in the northern sector had quieted down, but added that the "situation along the entire front is still serious."

U. N. observers took up positions along the Syrian and Lebanese borders north of Lake Hula where Arab irregulars, Syrian and Lebanese troops attacked Saturday, driving the Jews back.

Under Scrutiny

The Negev front, in southern Palestine, was also under the close scrutiny of truce officials and no new outbreaks were reported.

In Cairo, Egyptian Premier Nokrashy Pasha said that two unknown planes were driven away from the Egyptian capital by anti-aircraft fire last night.

(Anticipating further outbreaks in the Negev area, the Egyptian government issued a proclamation authorizing the ministry of war and marine to call up civilian pilots for active duty.)

The sudden flareup of fighting on the northern Holy Land borders led to demands in Tel Aviv that Israel take the offensive and eliminate the threat to Galilee.

The Arab forces in the area reportedly irregulars under the leadership of Fawzi-el-Kawukji plus some Syrian and Lebanese regulars—were said to have yielded initial gains they made in the fighting.

Just another week of the speeches, just another week of the fight, and then for the voters from the people and the score on the Tuesday night. We'll win or lose, but we must be ready, for no matter the odds and their statements and majorities claimed to be against. There's only one can be winner, but who will be fooled by Fate, just wait my friend for another week, the weather is still right.

Seek To End Strike
The important regional CGT board of the Pas De Calais, heart of the coal mining area in the north, was said to be seeking negotiations to end the strike.

Mines and other installations were occupied by troops in the Douai and Valenciennes areas. At the Seesville pits near Douai the miners first refused to leave seized pits, but they reconsidered and withdrew when police reinforcements surrounded them.

There were many arrests throughout the strike area, in line with the government's determination to crush what it terms a Soviet-inspired attempt to sabotage the Marshall Plan.

A CGT-proclaimed 24-hour general strike in the Loire Basin deprived the town of St. Etienne of trolley, bus, garbage collection, mail distribution and train services.

The Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor (CGT) which is sponsoring the three-week old strike.

Seek To End Strike
The important regional CGT board of the Pas De Calais, heart of the coal mining area in the north, was said to be seeking negotiations to end the strike.

Mines and other installations were occupied by troops in the Douai and Valenciennes areas. At the Seesville pits near Douai the miners first refused to leave seized pits, but they reconsidered and withdrew when police reinforcements surrounded them.

There were many arrests throughout the strike area, in line with the government's determination to crush what it terms a Soviet-inspired attempt to sabotage the Marshall Plan.

A CGT-proclaimed 24-hour general strike in the Loire Basin deprived the town of St. Etienne of trolley, bus, garbage collection, mail distribution and train services.

MINES ASSAULT CONGRESSMEN

lators. We have been made the victims of the most gigantic propaganda machine ever seen.

"Most of the congressmen never saw the bill when they voted on it. The orders came down from Joe Martin and Charles Halleck and the congressmen voted for it. Your congressmen never saw the bill but he voted for it."

"Your congressman," said Mr. Hines, "voted wrong on the Taft-Hartley Act, the Case Bill, Price Control, Railway Retirement Act, Employers Liability, Tax Bill and Rent Control."

Threatens Reprisals
"We are going to defeat a lot of congressmen for their votes on the Taft-Hartley Act. We expect to take out 12 Pennsylvania congressmen and in Philadelphia alone we expect to take out three or four."

Mr. Hines put the matter up to the 400 or more present when he said, "what are you going to do about it? What are you going to do about your congressman? Will you try to lick him? I think you should."

Mr. Hines told of the growth of union labor in America, and said today there are approximately 16,000,000 union men and women in the ranks. He urged unity of action and a continued interest in public affairs.

Audino President
Ralph Audino, president of the Trades and Labor Assembly, presided at the dinner as toastmaster. Rev. Albert M. Inteco of St. Vitus church pronounced the invocation and Rev. Thomas J. Jones of First Congregational the benediction.

In the absence of Mayor John F. Haven, Councilman James Gibson welcomed the guests. Mrs. Elizabeth Dray, third international vice president of the Women's Union Label League, was the first speaker.

Mrs. Dray urged women to insist upon the union and upon all merchandise they purchased. "Women do the buying for the home," said she. "They can insure goods being union made if they insist upon the union label."

John G. Whitney, representative of the Operating Engineers and president of the Central Labor Union of Warren, O., was the next speaker.

"One of the authors of the Taft-Hartley Act, Senator Robert A. Taft, is from my state," said Mr. Whitney, "but when he comes up for re-election we are going to get him. Let's not be Democrats or Republicans," said Mr. Whitney. "Let's help the officials who help us and defeat those who don't."

Saturday night's dinner-dance was the second annual affair of its kind, but was about twice as large as the one held a year ago. Preceding the introduction of the speakers, Toastmaster Audino introduced the various union presidents and representatives present.

Dancing until midnight followed the dinner.

not only thwarted the blockade but has seriously impaired Russian prestige throughout the world.

However, Gen. Lucius Clay, commander of the United States forces in Germany, declared during his last week's visit to Washington that he did not anticipate Russian use of force against the lift. Presumably, since threats have been made for so long a time, Clay also is prepared to meet any force which may be employed.

Diplomats generally do not believe that the United States' ability will be impaired seriously to deal with a crisis should one develop. However, they are not at all certain that Moscow has this conviction, despite repeated statements of both candidates on bipartisan unity of foreign policy.

There has been some indication that Dewey, if elected, will assign John Foster Dulles, his foreign policy advisor and a joint architect in developing it, to sit in closely with Secretary of State Marshall. This would provide a channel of close cooperation in event of a crisis.

Korean Troops Drive Rebels Out Of Kwangyang

SEOUL, Oct. 25.—(INS)—Loyal government troops drove an insurgent force out of the rail city of Kwangyang today in the sixth day of American-occupied South Korea's rebellion.

Other South Korean army columns were understood to be pressing strong attacks to recapture the seaport of Yosu and to clear rebels out of the Chiri mountains.

You and the Chiri range comprised the last remaining pockets of insurgent resistance.

An estimated 300 rebels ousted from Kwangyang retreated into the Chiri Heights to the east, with loyal forces in close pursuit. It was the second time that a rebel force had sought refuge in the Chiri range.

Recapture of Kwangyang, approximately 135 miles south of Seoul, was announced by South Korean army headquarters in the national capital, Kwangyang's recovery followed the week-end recapture of the large rail city of Suncheon, 30 miles to the south, after heavy fighting in and around that center.

Junior Red Cross Plans Enrollment

Twenty-seven students and three teacher-sponsors of the Junior Red Cross met in the chapter house Saturday to organize plans for this year's activity.

Violet Rusinski of Bessemer gave a short talk on her two week course at the Red Cross Youth leadership camp in Byndon Wave, Pa., last summer.

"Hand In Hand" a film illustrating Junior Red Cross relief work in foreign lands was shown by Joe Book of the 229th Field Artillery Unit.

Plans for the enrollment campaign which begin Nov. 1 in all of the public schools in Lawrence County were discussed. The student representatives then made nut cups for use of the bed patients at Deshon Hospital during the approaching holidays.

The council, which consists of 2 representatives from each school will meet again Saturday, November 6, to hear the report of the officers and the results of the enrollment campaign.

WHY NOT TRY THIS?

Relaxing Bedtime Routines

It is generally agreed that young children should have regular bedtime. The growing youngster needs plenty of rest. Such a fact, however, does not mean that there must never be exceptions.

When there are special occasions, parents may well let the children stay up a bit later. Perhaps father is returning from a trip but can't arrive until a bit after the bedtime hour. Uncles and aunts may drop in for a few minutes. There may be some special celebration, such as the Fourth of July or Halloween when there are very interesting after-dusk activities. More customary happenings, even, may be the occasion for the relaxation of the usual go-to-bed rule. If there is a full moon and a lovely clear night, it will be a special treat for the youngsters to have a chance to walk around the block and see how things look at night under the moon.

Nor need one fear that bad habits will be started, that youngsters will be spoiled and demand special privileges all the time. Instead, they will appreciate the privileges and be more co-operative than they might otherwise.

Gen. Eisenhower To Cast First Ballot

TOPEKA, Kans., Oct. 25.—(INS)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, now president of Columbia university, will cast his first ballot in the November 2 election.

Gen. Eisenhower has applied for an absentee serviceman's ballot at the office of Kansas Secretary of State Frank J. Ryan in Topeka. He is a native of Abilene, Kans.

Although now retired, Gen. Eisenhower stated that he is assigned to the office of the chief of staff, Washington, and is stationed in New York City. He asked for the absentee ballot so that it may be returned before he leaves on a trip October 27.

Gen. Eisenhower, much-discussed as a possible presidential candidate by both major political parties, never previously cast a ballot. He entered West Point when 18 years old and became a career soldier, voluntarily barring himself from ballot rights.

He never has publicly disclosed his political affiliation, if any.

SALES TALK

The patent medicine salesman used to drive into town in a fancy wagon. He had twenty dollar gold pieces for buttons. He had long hair and a ten gallon hat.

He yelled about beaver oil and snake oil and Indian medicine and consumption cures. He was pretty smooth and he gathered in lots of money for his worthless stuff. Nowadays he comes right into our homes. He has a persuasive voice. He uses the same old oil. There are no consumption cures any more. You are just burning up with acid, nowadays. You need all sorts of vitamin pills, but his is of course the one you ought really to take.

It took money to get those twenty dollar gold eagles in the good old days.

It takes money to ride on the air nowadays.

Perhaps it takes some of your money.

IN VIEW OF NEWS

on March 31, cannot possibly be straightened out at once.

The framers of the resolution apparently hope for some sort of simultaneous action which would set in motion a gradual process of solution, the goal in both blockade and currency being reached by "coincidence" on November 20.

The first Russian roadblock would be lifted, for example, when the military governors started out for their initial meeting on currency.

Then, just as agreement was reached on the par value of the Soviet mark in relation to western currencies, for example, a switch might be pulled and operations would resume on the vital Heimstedt-Berlin railway spur which has been out of action in one manner or another since June 24.

Finally, and within 10 days after both problems had been ironed out, the Big Four council of foreign ministers would meet, satisfying the Soviet stand that the Berlin crisis never belonged in the hands of the United Nations anyway and this body would go ahead with examination of the whole German problem from top to bottom.

Opinion in Paris is divided as to whether the resolution has any chance of success. The Russians clearly will not agree to any major surrender of their original demands. But the western nations obviously are willing to abandon their condemnation of the Soviets and a Kremlin concession in exchange can start the long and complicated process under way of getting Berlin back to normal.

Gen. MacArthur Seeks To Speed Return Of Japs

TOKYO, Oct. 22.—(UPI)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur today offered the Russians the use of American icebreakers to speed the return to Japan of an estimated 470,000 Jap prisoners still held by the Soviet.

The allied supreme commander also said he would give the Russians other technical assistance to permit repatriation transport operations through the winter.

Last winter the Russians suspended all operation of repatriation ships, pleading that winter conditions rendered sea navigation impossible.

MacArthur's headquarters in Tokyo sent a letter to Lt. Gen. Kuzma Derzvyansky, Russian member of the allied council for Japan, offering the following:

- Offer Made
1. The use of the icebreakers to overcome long conditions in Soviet ports presently to be used in the repatriation program.
 2. The dispatch of allied repatriation vessels to any Soviet Asiatic port the Russians may designate and "from which repatriation lifts are deemed practicable" by MacArthur's headquarters "during the winter months."
 3. The provision of winter clothing, heating facilities and adequate rations for Japanese repatriates during the sea journey.
- The letter pointed out that the Russians have failed for 16 consecutive months to meet the agreed upon monthly quota of 50,000 repatriates.

Name New Officers For Wilmington S.S. District On Sunday

New Officers Installed By Lawrence County President,
L. Butler Hannon

One of the most outstanding and well organized district Sabbath school conventions took place Sunday afternoon and evening in the New Wilmington Methodist church when the Wilmington district of the Lawrence County Sabbath School association convened for its annual convention.

The program got under way at 2:30 p. m. with a worship program directed by J. A. Chapin, district president, who welcomed the guests to the convention. Echoes of the state convention were given by various representatives of the district. Outstanding among these was the report of Mrs. Fred Seely, who reported on the address of Dr. Trever, who spoke on the importance of Bible study. Mrs. Thomas Elliott, county secretary, gave an excellent resume of the state convention at Williamsport.

Miss Anna Dodds, county temperance director, reported on the accomplishments of the temperance committee. District officers also made their reports, followed by the election of officers. L. Butler Hannon, county president, spoke concerning the objectives of the county organization during the afternoon session.

Following a recess for lunch the group reassembled in the church, opening the evening service with a period of devotion in charge of the young people of the Wilmington district, led by Wallace Downs. Miss M. Rainey was featured in vocal selections.

New Officers
Mr. Hannon installed the following officers during the evening: president, J. A. Chapin; vice president, Glenn Patterson; secretary, Mrs. George Pontius; treasurer, Wilson Boober; young people's superintendent, Ronald Robinson; children's superintendent, Mrs. Ruth Pontius; parent training, Rev. George Myers; temperance, Mrs. Dorothy Smith; administrative leadership, Rev. T. L. Patton; adult training, Ed. Reed; leadership training, Rev. A. B. Wiles; missions, Mrs. Thomas Welsh; home department, Miss Alice Reynolds; and evangelism, Mrs. E. A. Silvis.

Rev. Roland White, new minister of the New Wilmington Presbyterian church of New Wilmington, was the evening speaker, using as his theme "The Forces That Unite." He pointed out the many forces that could make this a better world if they were harnessed, finally pointing out that Christ is the only force that will unite this divided world.

Had Himself Killed

CLEVELAND POLICE are pondering the case of 16-year-old Hugh Mellon (above), who induced a 10-year-old playmate to kill him, the younger boy said. Mellon, rebuked by his parents and parents of a girl friend over a weekend trip to a football game at Ann Arbor, Mich., left two notes. He directed the younger boy to shoot him in the head with a .22-caliber rifle. (International)

Seek To Sell City Building

Council Moves For Sale—
Delay Action On Wage
Tax Measure To
November 15

After laying over until November 15, a final vote on an ordinance levying a tax and fixing the tax rate of the general personal property tax ordinance, council, which met in the city building, through Property Director Joseph D. Alexander adopted a motion, offering the present city building for sale.

The present structure was built by John Preston about 1875, according to Solicitor Robert White.

Delay Action On Wage

Kotler and Thayer, associated architects for the new city hall, reported to council, the low bid for the completion of the structure. However, no action, other than to put the bids in committee, was taken.

The bids submitted follow:

General contract, Matthew Lovo & Sons, $128,500.

Harry H. Daugherty, Youngstown, heating, $19,400.

Manufacturers Distributors company, plumbing, $16,500.

Ernest & Merriliss, electric, $18,900.

Building To Cost $214,300

"We would like to point out that, the total cost of all contracts to date will be about $214,300, which means a per cubic foot cost of $1.31. We consider this per cubic foot very reasonable, in view of present prices for buildings of this type are running from $1.50 to $1.70 per cubic foot," the architect wrote council.

French circles displayed a significant sympathy with Brumag's continued efforts to achieve a compromise.

American and British spokesmen again indicated that the Viskinsky counterplan still would mean negotiations under duress which the western powers refuse.

Behind-the-scenes conferences proceeded and in mid-afternoon it became problematic whether the Security Council, whose scheduled 9 a. m. session already had been postponed for two hours, would meet at all today.

Viskinsky's plan provides for the following stages:

1. Opening of the Autobahn for controlled traffic.

2. Opening of the vast system of Berlin waterways.

3. Gradual relaxation of railway restrictions with complete suspension by Nov. 30.

U. N. Delegates See No Action On Palestine Issue

PARIS, Oct. 25.—(U.N.B.)—United Nations delegates predicted today that there will be no action on Palestine at this session of the general assembly.

Week-end developments in the United States also gave rise to speculation that the last recommendations of the late Count Folke Bernadotte are virtually dead.

The exchange between President Truman and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey left most delegates wondering where the U. S. really stands on the Palestine question this time. Speculation centered on whether President Truman's assertion that he will not back any Palestine settlement not agreeable to Israel constitutes a repudiation of his secretary of state, Gen. George Marshall.

Marshall had told the U. N. that the U. S. favored Bernadotte's "last testament" plan, which Israel opposed.

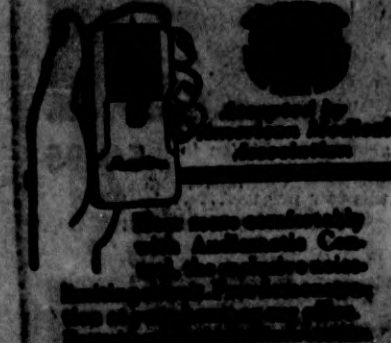

American delegation spokesmen were non-committal on the issue. But most delegates agreed that the Truman-Dewey exchange has killed the Bernadotte plan. They also feared that the issue will be shelved by the political committee and special assembly convened possibly in January to arrive at a final settlement.

Central Church Host To County Endeavor

Young People From Several District Churches In Attendance At Fall Convention

Officers and members of the association of the Lawrence County Christian Endeavor Union met in the Central Presbyterian church on October 21, for the fall meeting and convention.

Opening with registration, the meeting proper was prefaced with a musical program by Mrs. Gay Shaw of Edinburg, who which Leora McCracken, county president welcomed the group and offered the evening prayer.

Separating into groups for conferences, Rev. Thomas Reddick was in charge of the high school section, while Rev. Howard Redmond led the senior section. Both sessions centered around the applications of the C. E. pledge in our work as individuals and as a society. Rev. Redmond stated that the pledge states the Christian's belief and trust and if we accept an faithfully keep our pledge, we can be of invaluable service to our church, society and community.

Thomas Charges Attempt To Make Him Scapgoat

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(U.N.B.)—A grand jury investigating "kick-back" charges against Rep. Thomas (H. N. J.) will consider tomorrow a request by the congressman to appear before it sometime after the election.

Thomas, chairman of the house un-American activities committee, accepted a justice department invitation to appear before the jury but said that the date should be set after the election if they "really want to keep this free of politics."

U. S. Attorney George M. Fay announced that Thomas' request will be placed before the grand jury tomorrow.

The justice department extended the invitation and Thomas accepted after the New Jersey Republican charged that the administration seeks to make him the "political scapegoat" for its "failure" to drive communists from the government.

Thomas accused Attorney General Clark of bringing the charges against him in order to defeat him for re-election.

Former Ambassador Bullitt For Dewey

"Lifetime Democrat" Considered Truman Administration "Incompetent" In Situation

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(U.N.B.)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey has a new supporter today in William C. Bullitt, former ambassador to Russia and France, who said he considered the Truman administration "incompetent."

Bullitt described himself as a "lifelong Democrat" but said he was leaving the party because he has confidence in the Republican presidential candidate.

"Our deluded government, attempting to appease Stalin, permitted him to dominate 130 million free Europeans and 180 million free Chinese."

"We could have won the peace as well as the war. But our national administration was incompetent to protect the vital interests of the United States. It is equally incompetent today. I have confidence in the ability of Gov. Dewey. Therefore I—a lifetime Democrat—advocate his election."

Big Atlantic City Mansion Ransacked

Believe Intruders At Home Of Late Wealthy Walter Garrett Were Hunting Papers

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 25.—(AP)—Police sought clues today to intruders who invaded the vacant seashore mansion of Walter Garrett, late Philadelphia snuff king.

Detective Edward Jacobson said the searchers apparently were looking for evidence in connection with Garrett's $30,000,000 estate, which is claimed by 30,000 persons.

The visitors entered the home Sunday in between the daily inspections of caretaker William Bigler. They slit open pillows and upholstery, examined drawers and closets, and peered into vases and urns.

Jacobson reported: "This definitely was not mere vandalism. Somebody was searching for something—probably hidden papers or records, real or imaginary."

When Garrett's widow, Henrietta, died in 1930, she bequeathed only some $65,000 of the $17,000,000 estate. It has since nearly doubled in value while special master's hearings are conducted as to the heirs.

N. L. R. B. Says Mass Picketing Unlawful

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. News Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The CIO Longshoremen's Union planned today to seek a re-hearing of the National Labor Relations board decision on mass picketing and union responsibility.

The board found mass picketing, which blocks workers entry to a plant, in violation of the Taft-Hartley law and also ruled that unions are liable for such unfair labor practices committed by their agents.

The five-man board ruled that the latter is true even though the union may not have authorized the illegal acts or may have specifically forbidden them. It was the first decision of the full NLRB on union strike activities since the new labor statute became effective more than a year ago.

Important Decision
Two members of the board characterized the important decision as one that "may determine the course of industrial controversies and the rights of employers and employees in the years ahead."

The agency termed mass picketing illegal because of the Taft-Hartley law's prohibition against "restraint or coercion" of employees by unions.

The new law set up for the first time a list of unfair labor practices applicable to unions.

The NLRB decision also reversed a policy which had applied for many years under the Norris-LaGuardia Act. The Supreme Court had held that this law exempted unions from liability for illegal acts in labor disputes unless it could be proved that the unions instigated, ratified or participated in the acts.

Held Unions Responsible
"The act (Taft-Hartley) envisages that the board shall now hold labor organizations responsible for conduct of their agents... just as it has always held employers responsible for the acts of their agents."

The decision was handed down

In the 18-month-old strike of local six of the CIO Longshoremen's Union against the Sunset Line and Twine Co., of Petaluma, Calif.

About a year ago some 200 to 300 strikers surrounded the main gates of the fishing line factory and turned back cars of non-strikers. The board said this mass picketing "patently involved restraint and coercion of employees attempting to go to work" and constitute an unfair labor practice banned by the Taft-Hartley law.

The International Longshoremen's Union and the local were held responsible by the NLRB and ordered to cease coercing non-strikers.

Takashi Komatsu Under Indictment

TOKYO, Oct. 25.—(INS)—Takashi Komatsu, described his American friends in Tokyo as a "good will emissary" between Japan and America, was under indictment today for responsibility of Japan's great arms disposal scandal.

Komatsu, who studied at Monmouth College and Harvard, was head of the arms disposal committee charged with handling an estimated 1,270,000,000 tons of Japanese munitions, tanks, planes and other arms turned back by the Americans.

The goods, including uniforms and equipment, were to go for relief of war sufferers and proceed from all sales to go into the national treasury.

SCHUMAN IS NAMED
PARIS, Oct. 25.—(INS)—French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman was elected president today of the five-nation western union foreign ministers.

After the election, the ministers of Britain, France, and the Benelux countries and a few top advisors met secretly at the Quai D'Orsay.

Charges Violations Of Hatch Act In Present Campaign

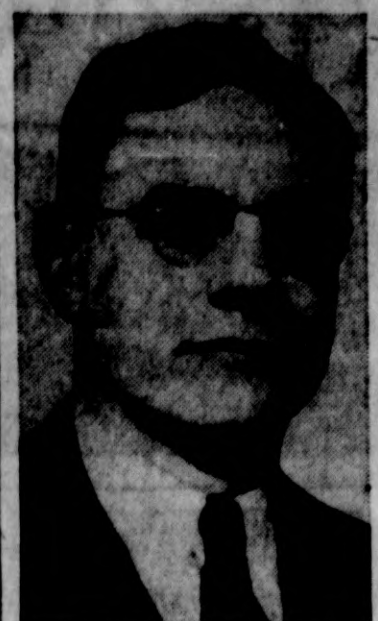

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(INS)—The Republican national chairman charged today that the Democratic party is "lawlessly diverting money" from public service to the campaign.

Hugh Scott declared that civil service workers are being used by the Democrats in the New Mexico senatorial campaign in violation of the Hatch Act. He said that the present "payroll mobilization" in that state "is the most shocking thing of its kind in all American history."

Scott said staff investigators in New Mexico have supplied him with details describing the mobilization of federal payrollers in the race.

Former Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson, a Democrat, is opposing Republican Gen. Patrick J. Hurley, in the contest.

Science 'Mobilizer'

DR. EDWIN STEWART, president of West Virginia university, is chairman of a four-member committee appointed by the Armed Forces Research board to plan mobilizing of science if war comes. Other members are Dr. James Baxter III, president Williams college; John T. Connor, Rahway, N. J.; Dr. William Machin, New York university. (International)

EARTH IS FLAT, ZIONISTS SAY

ZION, Ill., Oct. 25.—(INS)—Members of the Zion Christian Catholic church still are looking for evidence that the earth is spherical, rocket photographs to the contrary notwithstanding. Belief that the globe is flat is based by members of the sect on what they term a "literal translation" of the old testament.

Church overseer, M. J. Minstern, studied the latest photographs made from a rocket launched at the White Sands proving grounds and said the earth still appeared flat. He said:

"When you have something really worth while in the way of proof that the earth is spherical, let me know."

FOLDING GLASS NEW INVENTION

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 25.—(INS)—Now it's folding glass. The Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company today announced it has developed a folding rear window for convertible automobiles.

The new window is formed of a special plate glass-plastic sandwich. It folds like an accordion when the convertible top is lowered.

New York State Ban On Book Upheld

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(INS)—The Supreme Court today upheld a New York state ban on the seamy "Memoirs of Hecate County" as an obscene book.

The state's ban on the risqué account of New York suburban life was upheld by an unusual tie vote, 4 to 4. Justice Felix Frankfurter did not take part in the decision.

By the tie vote, the Supreme court rejected the contention of Doubleday & Co., publishers of the satire, that the ban violated the constitutional guarantee of free speech and free press.

Report Russians Massing Troops On Zone Border

By RICHARD WEL
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
BERLIN, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Authoritative U. S. Army sources disclosed today that the Russians have begun massing crack troops along the borders of their German occupation zone.
They said that in the last few days alone the Soviets massed some 100,000 Siberian and Mongolian battle-tested soldiers in Saxony, near the U. S. zone, and have poured in a steady stream of tanks and guns.
In addition, it was said that the Russians are stationing about 150 anti-aircraft guns along the routes of the Allied airlift corridors to Berlin.
This last was borne out by reports from airmen that construction of anti-aircraft emplacements at a number of points along the corridors is obvious from the air.
The pilots' reports also told of new roads, bearing the marks of tanks and trucks, mysteriously disappearing into forests and empty fields. These reports revived speculation that the Soviets are reconditioning former Nazi underground installations for their own use.

Around Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 25.—Off the celluloid cuff: Gary Cooper picking up $1000 profit in three minutes, selling the LaGonda racing car that cost him $5500 seven years ago for a cool $6500.

Greer Garson will have two husbands and a boyfriend in her new technicolor picture, "The Forsyte Saga." The script says Hubby No. 1 "must be affable but coldly efficient and ruthless." Hubby No. 2 "must be charming, artistic, but mildly indifferent to dress and haircut." Boyfriend must also be artistic and able to fall under a moving wagon before the final fade-out... any candidates?

Henry Morgan, the character actor, is receiving more mail than usual from movie fans these days. The increase, he sadly related, has nothing to do with his ability on the screen but with the problem of picking a moogler for one of his 20-month-old twins.

Since Henry remarked recently that the boy had not been christened, and this fact hit print, more than 1,000 people have sent in suggestions.
One of the twins was named Timothy soon after his arrival. The Morgans couldn't make up their minds on a tag for the other. So, temporarily, they decided to call him Bitzy. He still answers to Bitzy while Henry tries to think of a real fancy handle for him.

The "Johnny Belinda" premiere was the fanciest in Hollywood since before the war. And that picture is one of the best to be manufactured in movietown in that long. Jane Wyman should be a shoe-in to cop an Academy Oscar for her portrayal of a deaf mute. Warner Bros. think Jerry Wald has given them the pic of the year.

Sight of the week: Joan Crawford—dirty and bedraggled and ugly—kissing "Cliff" her French poodle, after a prison scene for "Flamingo Road."

Vanessa Grows Up
Remember Vanessa Brown, one-time junior genius of the Quiz Kids? She has grown into a streamlined chick who is winding up her twelfth movie role. Her next is a full-fledged romantic lead opposite Richard Conte in "Big Jack."

Says Soviet Fears U.S. Plans For World Stability

BOSTON, Oct. 25.—(INS)—A state department official said today that Russia "fears" American plans to bring about world stability.

Paul H. Nitze, deputy assistant secretary of state for economic affairs, spoke before the opening session of the 20th Boston conference on distribution.

He said Russia fears the American program because it will prove "the way of free nations is the better way."

He said Russia has consistently opposed such measures of international cooperation as the international bank, the international monetary fund, the general agreement on tariffs and trade, the international trade organization, as well as the Marshall plan.

A. met on October 21 at 8 o'clock in the school building with the grade school teachers, including Mrs. Sara Dambach, Mrs. Dorothy Medwid, Miss Geraldine Campbell, Miss Lucille Moorhead, Mrs. Esther Eakin and George Kiefer in charge. Mrs. Hazel McCracken presided over the remainder of the evening, conducting devotions. The association plans to have a halloween party for the grades on Friday, October 29. Plans are being made for the next meeting on November 18.

Soviet Bloc Suffers New U. N. Defeat

By JOSEPH L. RANFT
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)
PARIS, Oct. 25. — The Soviet bloc suffered a sharp defeat today when the United Nations political committee refused to permit Albania and Bulgaria to take part in debate on the Balkan problem.

Instead, the committee backed a United States proposal to hear statements from the two states and then to permit them to remain to answer questions.

U. S. Delegate John Foster Dulles said the committee's action is not an invitation but a summons to the accused to stand in the dock.

Both Nations Opposed
Bulgaria and Albania have both been accused by the U. N. Balkan commission of aiding Greek Communist-led guerrillas, in defiance of U. N. orders. Neither of the two states is a member of the U. N.

Dulles said that the U. S. opposes their seating at the discussion because they have refused to cooperate with the Balkan commission.

But Soviet Delegate Alexander Bogomolov insisted that the two states be granted the right to participate fully in the discussions.

After rejecting the Soviet position, the committee began consideration of a Yugoslav proposal that a representative of the Greek guerrilla leader of General Markos Vamvakides be invited.

The discussion began with a note of discord. Yugoslav Delegate Alex Bogomolov took the floor to condemn an unnamed employee of the committee for removing from the desk of delegates copies of a Russian propaganda pamphlet.

Dulles demanded that the committee act "against such unwarranted behavior."

What They Say Of Chest Drive

DR. G. S. BENNETT
Pastor, First Christian Church
In every well-ordered American community there are a number of charitable and character-building organizations which have to be maintained by volunteer service and contributions. New Castle is no exception to this rule. In fact, we have every reason to be proud of the work and achievements of these organizations in our own city.

Over a period of many years, and in several hundred communities throughout our nation, the Community Chest has proven to be the most logical and convenient method of raising the funds necessary to carry on the work of these worthwhile institutions. Every citizen of New Castle who loves his city and has any interest in its welfare will want to help in every way possible. The Community Chest needs your help; and you and your family need the agencies of the Community Chest. Do your best!

J. C. WILLIAMS
President, Williams-Cleveland Co.
Our community took a progressive step when the Community Chest was organized.

It has made it possible to have but one campaign for funds instead of the many we used to have, and apportion the same according to the need—regardless of sect, creed, or color.

It merits, beyond a doubt, our generous support.

Jury To Hear Of Drinking Bout Before Murder

Testimony In Newark Murder Trial To Feature Details Of Night Spots Tour

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 25.—(INS) — The spotlight at the trial of Mrs. Ann Seaman Powers for the murder of Thomas J. Rowe focused today on the 12-hour drinking bout that preceded the Newark police captain's death.

A parade of bartenders, waiters and taxi drivers are scheduled to take the witness stand to detail the couple's tour of night spots that ended when Rowe was shot to death in his office last May 21.

The state contends Mrs. Powers, red-haired 39-year-old waitress who is estranged from her employer husband, shot Rowe because he told her he was going to break off their relationship.

The defense maintains Rowe shot himself.

Widow To Testify
Last of the state's remaining 14 witnesses is the slain man's widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Rowe.

Mrs. Rowe, who has been kept from court since last Thursday by illness, was expected to provide the most dramatic testimony yet in building the state's story of how his family sought to break off the affair between Capt. Rowe and Mrs. Powers.

She was expected to amplify testimony of her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Scott.

The daughter's testimony was bolstered by that of her husband, Andrew Scott, who sat in a car across the street during the scene between his wife and his father-in-law.

Scott, who admitted under cross-examination he did not hear all of the conversation, was to be recalled to the stand also.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

money to the United States—and they have lent billions in the last decade and a half—have the privilege of issuing currency backed by the bonds they hold. Luckily, they have not availed themselves by any means of the full utilization of this privilege. But by reason of our borrowings there has been an increase in credits and money in circulation to a point unprecedented in our history.

As of today, the money in the hands of the people of this country is in the neighborhood of twenty-nine billion dollars. Their credits in the form of savings and bonds are enormous. Although we have twenty-three billions of gold stored away underground, which we are not using as backing for currency, reserve banks receiving gold shipments in settlement of foreign accounts are permitted, if they desire, to issue currency up to a certain amount on the receipts given them by the government when they turn these gold shipments into the Treasury. The banks, be it said to their credit, have been extremely conservative in availing themselves of this prerogative.

Two Factors Prevail
Nevertheless, two factors still prevail in the matter of inflation. One is the deliberate devaluation of the dollar by the Roosevelt administration in 1933 by outlawing gold and arbitrarily raising the price of gold, thus cheapening the dollar. The move was undertaken in a period of serious deflation and was intended as a step toward inflation. In a measure it was successful, being beneficial to all debtors—including the United States government—and correspondingly disastrous to creditors. The move in itself may have been more or less justifiable, however, inequitable, coming at a time when money was dear and goods were cheap. It was, substantially, a vindication of the William Jennings Bryan theory that increasing the volume and velocity of currency would aid prosperity—temporarily, at least.

But those in charge of the government were not content to rest on this achievement. They adopted the doctrine that the way to prosperity was unlimited government spending. The more the government spent, the more money there would be in circulation, for the money supply was automatically increased in proportion to government borrowing.

Rooseveltian Policy
The Rooseveltian policy was augmented by the adoption of two other theories. One was that advanced by the British economist Keynes, who insisted that this country—or any other country—could "spend itself rich." It was the votaries of this same economist who advanced the peculiar philosophy that the size of the national debt did not matter since "we owed it to ourselves." The other policy was that sponsored by the late Harry Hopkins: "will tax and tax, spend and spend, and elect and elect." The Keynes idea was merely economic fallacy; it embraced the philosophy that by strategic spending of taxes collected from the thrifty, in order to give special benefits to the thriftless, elections could be won indefinitely.

The inevitable results of these two policies are the inflation from which the country is suffering today. Unrestrained spending meant unrestrained borrowing; unrestrained borrowing meant unrestrained increase in the currency supply. The dollar's cheapness by the Roosevelt devaluation edict in 1933 continued to decline in worth as the supply was increased by spending and borrowing. Instead of "spending ourselves rich" we have spent ourselves poor, because the dollar is worth only about half of what it used to be. Multiplication of dollars by taxing and spending and abundance of money, but cheap money, in contrast with dear goods.

Maintain Sound Currency
Maintenance of sound currency is a matter that should be above partisanship and politics, because of its vital effects upon both the highest and lowest. In all candor, however it must be said that our present inflation difficulties stem from erroneous—and in many respects demagogic—partisan policies.

These difficulties can be overcome only by unbiased nonpolitical endeavors to return to the gold standard just as soon as possible. It will take a long time to accomplish this but it must be done. The Treasury of the United States is in a terrible condition and the nation is now faced with a condition that if not checked, we are on the way to the same condition in which Germany found itself with its currency, after World War I.

SHAKING HANDS
"Please let me know when a woman should shake hands and when it is not necessary to do so. I have noticed that some women do and some don't. So I have wondered just what the rule is. Also who should say: 'I'm very pleased to have met you' when parting."

Answer: A woman may shake hands when and if she pleases. When greeting a friend or relative she has not seen for a long time. When accepting an introduction, whether the one introduced is either a man or a woman.

While it is not obligatory for her to offer her hand, it does give the impression of cordiality. When a man is introduced to a woman, it is entirely her privilege to extend her hand, as she pleases.

He should await this gesture from her before offering his hand. However, should he extend his hand, she should extend hers also and not have him suffer the embarrassment of a rebuff.

Since men "meet" women and women do not "meet" men, a woman should say to a man: "I am pleased to have met you." When a man says this as a parting remark to a woman he has just met, she might reply: "Thank you. It was nice seeing you." If he fails to say this, she might on parting say: "I enjoyed seeing you" or something similar. Or she might, if she prefers, say nothing other than "goodbye."

Question: I am planning a small wedding at my aunt's home with only the immediate families present. (1) Should the guests be seated or stand during the ceremony? (2) Would a corsage be suitable with a grey street-length dress, (3) May I correctly have a reception after my honeymoon, inviting all of my friends?

Answer: (1) They should stand. (2) Yes. (3) Yes.

Wabash Bears-Ellwood Vets To Play Here Thanksgiving

Arrangements Made For Charity Game

New Castle football fans are assured of a stellar grid attraction at the stadium here Thanksgiving Day.

The Pro-Indus club of New Castle, and the Ellwood City Vets, have come to terms for a big "Turkey Day" classic, featuring the Wabash Bears of New Castle and the Ellwood City "Boltbusters".

It will be a charity game for the Pro-Indus to carry on their charitable work.

The kickoff has been slated for 2:15 o'clock.

The game last year

The Bears and Vets known as the Ellwood Trojans, last year staged a terrific battle at the stadium in a New Castle High band benefit game which resulted in a 6-6 tie. The boys are very anxious to settle the matter as to who is the best.

The announcement in both Ellwood and New Castle today acted to electrify the "dyed-in-the-wool" football fans who like their football. Especially a New Castle-Ellwood contest. There will be many arguments pro and con as to who will win this one.

Meeting Sunday

Attending the meeting in Ellwood last night, when arrangements were made, were Elroy Lockley and William Sands of the Pro-Indus club, William Domesnick and John Piccola of the Bears, and Pat Taverna, Dale Tilla and George Thornydyke, representing the Ellwood VFW.

It is hoped to make this an annual affair. It will be for the semi-pro championship of Lawrence county. A handsome trophy will be given the winner each year.

Agree on Prices

The prices agreed on last night: $1.00 for reserved seats, 74 cents for general admission and 50 cents for students.

It is hoped to put between 5,000 and 10,000 into the stadium for this sensational battle.

St. Mary's 'Mites' Triumph Again

St. Mary's "Mighty Mites" had an easy time of it Saturday as they romped to a 51 to 9 victory over St. Phillips and James.

Snyder, Kennedy, and Matella each made 3 touchdowns and Hogan and McGinnis garnered one apiece. Every member of the squad saw action and performed so well that the Saint Mary's machine just kept rolling.

Dick Marshall was the individual ground gaining leader for St. Mary's as he net up five touchdowns with runs of 8 to 60 yards and gained a total of 117 yards from scrimmage.

This was the fifth straight for the "Mites" and if they can get by St. Lucy's next Saturday they will clinch the Catholic grade school championship for the third year in a row.

Cleveland, Paul E. Brown (above) coach and general manager of the Cleveland Browns, will resign as chief of the All-American football conference champions and return to intercollegiate coaching ranks in 1949, he has revealed. Brown would not confirm the report, but reliable sources say Brown is disgusted with the attitude of the All-American Conference toward the National Football league.

Shenango To Drop Freedom From Card

Nahas Claims That 'Bulldog' Grid-ders Used Foot Tactics in 7 To 0 Win Friday

Coch Eddie Nahas announced today that Shenango High will drop Freedom from their schedule because of the foul tactics displayed by Freedom Friday afternoon, when they beat Shenango 7 to 0. The Wildcats suffered injuries to three more valuable players in that game and one was "A broken nose that Johnny Allen got when a Freedom player thought he was getting away for a score," Nahas said today. Other injuries resulting from the rough play were a broken hand for John Zursky, and a cut mouth for dependable quarterback Bill Getchey, that required four stitches.

Meet Bessemer Thursday

Shenango has a big job cut out for it this week, as they meet undefeated Bessemer Thursday night at Bessemer. Prior to the Freedom game, Dick Kroesen, Bob Borne and Tom McGary were regular "Wildcats" that had suffered serious injury and did not even dress for the "Bulldog" encounter. As a matter of fact, a guard and a tackle saw backfield duty for the Wildcats last week and Coach Nahas and Sucke will have a difficult job finding three new starters for this week's game.

Washington Takes Midget Grid League

George Washington midget football team won the recreation board midget league Saturday morning by defeating Big Run, 8 to 6, at Washington field.

Bill Reiber touched Benigas in the end zone to give Washington two points in the first quarter. The safety did not seem important at the time, but it later became the victory margin.

Washington scored just before the half ended when Dale Matthews passed to Jack MacNamara, who raced 50 yards to score. Benigas passed to Tommy Eggleston early in the third quarter for the Big Run tally.

The following members of the Washington team will receive blue and white felt championship letters: Tom Crawford, Craig McBurney, Kent Malley, Gary McKissock, James Badger, Robert Brinton, James Burkholder, Dale Matthews, Sidney Stiner, William Reiber, Jack MacNamara, John Dinmore and K. Brunton.

Pears announced that league play will get underway the week of November 22.

Titans Defeat Bethany Bisons 20 To 7

WHARTON, LUTZ BIANCHI SCORE

Westminster Displays Fine Offensive Attack, Racking Up Second Win Of Year

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 25.—Westminster college's latest offensive power was on display Saturday afternoon when the Titans defeated Bethany 20-7 on the latter's field. The defeat marred Bethany's Homecoming celebration.

The superiority of the Titans over the Bisons was evident from the opening kickoff. On the third scrimmage play after Westminster received, Dick Wharton raced 65 yards for a touchdown only to have the play nullified on a holding penalty.

The Blue and White was not long to be denied a touchdown however. The holding penalty moved the ball back to the 20. Three more penalties on consecutive plays moved it back to the one from where Barthelson crossed up the Bison defense by passing to Sylvester who raced to midfield. On three line plays, Dick Wharton went over for the touchdown. Barthelson kicked good.

Lutz Races 50 Yards

Late in the first quarter, Westminster scored again. Ward received a punt in midfield, started to the right and handed the leather to Lutz coming the other way. Lutz raced down the left side of the field for 50 yards and a touchdown. Barthelson missed the try for extra point.

Slight football with Ward contributed a brilliant 20 yard run midway in the second quarter. Fullback Wisluga then cracked the line for the score. Barthelson again kicked good.

Despite a three touchdown deficit, Bethany refused to fold. A Titan punt was blocked and recovered by Bethany on Westminster's 40 just before half time. Antila heaved a pass into the end zone to Martin for a touchdown on the third play, the pass covering 40 yards.

Fumble on One

The third quarter was a stalemate but the Titans threatened three times in the fourth quarter. On one occasion, Wharton fumbled on the one on first down. Bethany kicked from behind their goal line three times during the period.

Dick Wharton, Titan fullback, had a field day at the expense of the Bisons. He was unstoppable. The work of Krivosch stood out on defense. First downs favored Westminster, 8 to 5.

The victory gives the Titans a record of two won, two lost, and one tied. Geneva will be the opponent next Saturday at New Wilmington in the annual Homecoming "key" contest.

Fort Myer-Bears Game On Nov. 11

Local Semi-Pro Outfit To Tackle Fort Myer Army Team On Armistice Night

As an added fillin to a crowded Armistice Day program, football fans will have the opportunity of seeing a good game in Taggart Stadium the night of November 11.

The Wabash Bears, fast local semi-pro team tangles with the Fort Myer, Virginia, army football team and a fast, hard game seems to be assured.

The Bears did not drop a contest last season, tying but one, that one with the Ellwood City Trojans. The Fort Myer team is made up of former high school and college stars and has had a successful season thus far.

Kickoff After Parade

Kickoff time has been set for 8:15 or after the Armistice Day parade. The game is sponsored by the New Castle Lions Club which is staging the game at the invitation of the men back at the Armistice Day celebration. Net proceeds from the game will go to the charities fund of the Lions club.

At half time the New Castle Senior High school band will perform. School students will be seated on the concrete stands as they have been all season. Adults will have the steel bleacher side.

With the high school football season over by a week, the Armistice Day football game between the Bears and the Army team promises to be just what the fans ordered.

Marshall Island Natives Teaching Americans Baseball

KWAJALEIN (Marshall Islands), Oct. 25.—(INS)—Marshall Island natives are teaching the Americans on Kwajalein a few things about baseball.

Dark skinned natives working about the Kwajalein air strip don't look as if they could get out of their own way, but when it comes to baseball they make the American service teams look like bush leaguers.

Baseball came back to the Marshalls with the American troops who pushed out the Japanese. But even before this the islanders knew how to play.

Taught By Japs

Ironically, they were taught by the Japanese who were great baseball fans until the military commenced to frown on western customs, including the American national game.

But as it did in Japan, baseball made a quick comeback. The native team on Kwajalein is leading the three team league composed of Air Force and Navy. Last summer when the cruiser St. Paul put into the lagoon the Marshalls had no trouble trouncing the Bluejackets 14-3. One officer commented: "We've got nothing in the islands to touch them."

Mustangs Upset G.I. Shines 13-6

The Mustangs defeated the G. I. Shines in a sandlot grid game Sunday at Washington Field, 13 to 6.

A pass from J. Pace to Miller covered 75 yards and gave the Mustangs the lead at 7 to 0 as Pace converted. A pass to Pete Stack was the means of the Shines scoring their only TD. Peterson made the final Mustang TD by intercepting a lateral and racing 30 yards to score.

Patty Berg Wins Match With Babe

FORT SMITH, Ark., Oct. 25.—(INS)—Patty Berg took over the Hardacreable women's open golf title today from Babe Didrikson Zaharias.

The red-haired professional from Savage, Minn., defeated the defending champion, 1 up, yesterday on the Fort Smith course to win top honors in the $1,000 tournament.

Mrs. Zaharias missed a 20-foot putt on the 18th green in the final that cost her the crown as Miss Berg holed out a three-footer for par and the match.

Tallest members of Juniata college's football team are William H. Campbell, Cumberland, Md., and Robert Monahan, Rankin, Pa. Both are 6-4 200-pound tacklers.

Harry Grabiner, Indians Official, Dies In Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—(INS)—Friends and relatives of Harry Grabiner are arriving in Chicago today to attend funeral services for the late vice president of the Cleveland Indians.

Grabiner died in St. Luke's hospital yesterday at the age of 57.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday in Chicago.

Grabiner entered the hospital a week ago for a check-up and was operated on Friday for the removal of a brain tumor.

Although the operation seemed successful, Grabiner's health declined rapidly.

One Of Veterans

He started his major league career at the age of 13 when he volunteered his services to Charles Comiskey, the owners of the Chicago White Sox, in 1904.

After reaching the position of vice president and general manager with the White Sox he resigned in 1946 to accept the vice presidency of the Cleveland Indians.

Only Connie Mack, owner-manager of the Philadelphia Athletics and Clark Griffith, of the Washington Senators ranked Grabiner in length of service in the American League.

Future In Class D Baseball In Doubt

By CHARLES EINHORN (International News Service Sports Writer)

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—The future of Class D baseball was a rocky, uncertain thing today—if, indeed, you should call it a future after the big-time Chicago Cubs had finished shredding their farm system.

The Cubs' move, which cut off support to eight minor league teams (five of them Class D outfits), was not the first of its kind, Pittsburgh having reduced from 19 to 13 farm clubs.

But, accompanied as it was by the firing of at least 35 persons in the farm chain, the Chicago action assumed an ominous portent.

Severe Cutdown

The cutover, most severe known to baseball since the war, was announced by Jack Sheehan, director of the Cubs' farm chain.

It clipped the club's minor league holdings to ten teams, of which the Cubs own six and have working agreements with four. Of the six Class D teams that are longed to the Cub chain, only a working agreement with St. Augustine of the Florida State League remains.

Sheehan said reduction of the farm system and staff could be attributed to "the high cost of operation. The military draft and reluctance of youngsters to sign in the lower minors." That indicates that some of the ex-Cub farms may not operate at all next season. And Sheehan says "further cuts may be necessary."

Want Only Best

But what was possibly the greatest blow to the Class D's was something else he said—something which may reflect baseball thinking everywhere:

"We are on the lookout now for just the best youngsters, boys who can start their baseball careers in a higher classification than the D leagues."

Among the personnel in the way of the falling axe were Claude Paseman and Ray Prim, Chicago's pitching heroes of the 1945 World Series, who had been playing the part of instructors in the Cub farm chain; full-time scouts Jack Ryan, Ed Holly and Jim Keesey; 25 part-time scouts and "several" business managers.

Sheehan pointed out these men had done nothing wrong—"but we are faced with no other alternative, since we no longer have the work for them."

OAKLAND Sportsman's club was organized in October 1946 by a group of sports-minded persons. They were from the Oakland and Spring Hill districts. The organization occurred at the K. of P. hall, Elmwood street. Officers were named as follows: President, Mike Popowski; Vice President, John Gorgach; Secretary, Joseph Ostrowski and Treasurer, Henry Popowski. During the initial meeting it was decided to solicit membership of all sportsmen in Lawrence and surrounding counties. Immediate action was taken to procure a permanent building. Due to a committee's untiring efforts through numerous social affairs, sufficient funds were raised to buy a tract of land comprising 65 acres at Edenburg, along Lowellville road. The club was incorporated as a non-profit organization in July, 1947. Officers that year were elected as follows: President, Joseph M. Waskin; Vice President, Paul Flegger; Treasurer, Alex Mrozek; Secretary, Joseph Ostrowski and Directors: Edward Kielar, Walter Ostrowski, Ben Irwin, Stanley Gerlach and John Frenar.

THE property which was acquired was in need of improvement. Volunteers soon went to work with axes, hammers and saws, and a section, five acres, was cleared for form a lake in which to date over 8,000 fingerlings in bass, bluegills and catfish has been stocked, thus giving sportsmen of the future, a chance to enjoy good fishing. To date, improvement of the building which was dilapidated, consisted of building a clubroom, remodeling of the kitchen, and addition of an assembly room. Repairs, at present, are incomplete. However, plans are under way to make it one of the finest club-houses in the county. The club is affiliated with the Lawrence County Council of Sportsmen, and cooperates fully with any plan to promote better hunting and fishing. Among its activities, is a program among junior members. The juniors participate in wild life predatory control, and sheltering and feeding of birds during winter. Plans are under way for a recreation plot, for a rifle range, skeet and transhooting, and at present, negotiations are under way to buy 15 additional acres. The membership is 163. Officers are: President, Joseph M. Waskin; Vice President, Walter Litvinovitch; Treasurer, Lawrence Kehna; Secretary, Wayne Pitzer and Directors: Frank Zajac, Pete Jaworski, Wix Mrozek, Walter Ostrowski and Florian Sawczak.
